The image shows a 6x7 grid of colored circles, each representing a day of the week. The columns are labeled at the top: SUNDAY (pink), MONDAY (orange), TUESDAY (yellow), WEDNESDAY (light green), THURSDAY (light blue), FRIDAY (purple), and SATURDAY (blue). Each column contains 6 circles, which are grouped by a dashed border. The colors of the circles repeat every 7 days. The first circle in each row is pink, followed by orange, yellow, light green, light blue, purple, and blue. This pattern repeats from the first row to the sixth row.
